

Cherryl Christensen, D.O., M.S., FACOEM

Dr. Christensen has been the Corporate Medical Director at the Procter & Gamble Company since 2008 and with the Company for 26 years. Her current responsibility includes the overall responsibility for 127,000 employees in over 80 countries, including management of the global medical network of 458 health professionals, located in 190 P&G Health Services around the world. She also has responsibility for the Global Vibrant Living Initiative, the Global EAP program, Global Travel Medicine and the Executive Health program.

Dr. Christensen is Board Certified in Occupational & Environmental Medicine and has a Masters of Science in Environmental Health. She is on the Board of Directors of the Global Health Benefits Institute, the Cigna Medical Advisors and the International Corporate Health Leadership Council. She serves on the Board of The Health Project (Koop Award) and the Institute of Medicines's Global Health Forum for Public-Private Partnerships. Previously (2012-2014), she served on the Institute of Medicine's Committee on Department of Homeland Security Occupational Health and Operational Medicine Infrastructure (2012-2014): Advancing Workforce Health at the Department of Homeland Security-Protecting Those Who Protect Us.

She is on faculty at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine as an Adjunct Clinical Professor of Occupational Medicine and Environmental Health.