

JOHN TROY, JD

John Troy, JD is a public policy and business consultant on federal and state healthcare and insurance issues. Current and career activities include:

Executive positions with Travelers Insurance Companies including President Travelers Health Network, Deputy General Counsel and Vice President Government Affairs;

Executive Vice President, Health Insurance Association of America;

Lobbying representation of major organizations on healthcare and other issues;

Chairman of the Board and CEO of a Florida Domiciled Property/Casualty Insurer;

Chairman of the Board, American Benefits Council;

Member of the Board, The Health Project, Washington, DC;

Member of the Board and Treasurer, Alpha Center for Health Policy;

Chairman of the Board, Connecticut Small Employer and Individual Health Insurance Pools.

Judge of Probate, District of East Granby, Connecticut

Graduate of University of Connecticut and University of Connecticut School of Law

Member of the Bar, State of Connecticut and Federal Courts, including the US Supreme Court